

Wiggin Appointed to Manchester United First Formal Legal Panel

Wiggin is delighted to have been appointed as one of Manchester United's preferred legal advisors on its first formal panel with effect from 1 May 2008.

Panel members will be the preferred providers of the majority of legal services to Manchester United Limited and its subsidiary companies.

Within the panel, lead advisors have been identified for certain core areas. Wiggin will be primarily responsible for advising Manchester United companies, including MUTV, on media law issues.

Michael Brader, corporate partner and head of the sports team said, " We're delighted that Manchester United and MUTV have chosen to endorse and build on our existing relationship. Wiggin's sports group prides itself on being at the cutting edge of the sports media space and we look forward to continuing to develop that strength in partnership with the world's leading football club."
